

Project Copper

A Highly Reputable and Growing Electrical Contractor

Garbutt + Elliott

Introduction

Project Copper is an opportunity to acquire a highly reputable and growing electrical contractor operating in the North of England. This established Yorkshire-based business has gained an excellent reputation for providing a high quality service in both the domestic and commercial sectors.

Following a management buy-out the current owners have overseen a period of significant growth, both in turnover and profitability.

The business has developed a number of excellent long-term relationships with high profile commercial clients, from whom there is an increasing demand for supply. It provides a wide service offering ranging from repairs and installation work to technical drawings and project management.

Key Features + Opportunities

- + A highly profitable business with a turnover approaching £2.5m and an EBITDA in excess of £245k.
- + Growing revenue and increasing margins.
- + An excellent reputation with strong commercial and domestic customer bases.
- + Significant further growth potential within the existing customer-base and potential to capitalise on high demand in other areas.
- + A highly-skilled and loyal workforce.
- + An excellent bolt-on opportunity for an existing operator to access this market location, or to compliment on existing M&E operator.
- + The business holds accreditations with all of the major safety standards compliance bodies.
